Reconvening of Supreme Court Today Brings Back Interesting Official Circle.

Brambilla-Meyer Nuptials Today at Hamilton—Taft-Chase Wedding Saturday at Waterbury.

The reconvening of the Supreme Court at noon today has been responsible for the reopening of a group of interesting official homes within the last week or ten days. Under normal conditions this distinguished little body of residents is the first to appear at Washington at the close of the summer, Congress following six weeks later. With Congress still sitting a number of its members had an opportunity today to look in on the opening session of the court.

As a result fifteen barrels of that vegetable were shipped from there to her Washington home.

Mrs. Frederick Nelson, who has devoted much of her time to furnishing comfort to those going to the front, has just completed the knitting of her eightieth sweater by her own hands for those in the war.

The Club of Colonial Dames will open for the season Wednesday afternoon, October 3. Tea will be served at 5 o'clock.

TELLS HIS EXPERIENCES AFTER ENTERING SERVICE

Lorin A. Marks, in Telegraph Battalion, Writes to The Star of Life in an Army Camp.

A District man who enlisted in the Signal Corps of the Regular Army May 2, and now is stationed at Camp Alfred Vall, Little Silver, N. J., has written to The Star telling some of his experiences since entering the service of Uncle Sam. This soldier is Corp. Lorin A. Marks, Company E, 5th Telegraph Battalion, Signal Corps, whose home is at 710 A street northeast. The writer states there is another Washington boy in the camp, Private Raymond Hart.

Following his enlistment, Marks states, he was sent to Fort Slocum, N. Y. The fort was crowded, he says, and a great many men were arriving daily. After two weeks there he was sent to Fort Wood, N. Y. (Bedloe's Island), on which the Statue of Liberty is situated.

Telephone Reserves Trained.

Continuing, he says: "On June 5, thirty of us were sent from Fort Wood here to open a camp on the old Monmouth Park race track. We were kept pretty busy for a month or so on fatigue. In the meantime 400 telephone reserves arrived, trained for about five weeks and left. I guess they are in France now. Carpenters were put to work and now we have a very nice small-sized camp here. Men were sent here from Leavenworth, some from the border, more of them came from Fort Wood. There are now over 2,000 men here, about one-third telephone reserves and the balance regulars.

Whether one battalion will remain here this winter or whether we shall soon go to the other side, I cannot say.

"Jersey certainly is a fine state. There are many beautiful homes hereabouts, and the people certainly treat us fine. We are provided with entertainments, refreshments, etc. Much joy is brought to the hearts of the men by the Russian ladies, and too much cannot be said for the Y. M. C. A. A week or so after the camp was organized the Y. M. C. A. erected a tent, and now they have one of the best wooden structures here.

Location of Camp.

"Our camp is located in the old Monmouth Park race track, famous years ago. We are about ten minutes' walk from Little Silver, about two miles from Long Branch and nine miles from Asbury Park.

"It has been a very cool here. However, we have just been issued our winter clothing, and the Red Cross provided every man with a sweater, so that we are very comfortable.

"We go through daily drills in visual signaling, line construction, etc. We also get some infantry drill and pistol practice. We are kept occupied most of the time, but have plenty of time for recreation, etc.

"I have The Star sent here from home, and though we get the daily New York papers, there is nothing like the old home town paper. The men like the pictorial section, which contains as good and as interesting pictures as any paper I have seen.
